Felixstowe Mayor's Charity bargain hunt Auction

---

Landguard Fort,
Thursday September 5th
6:30 PM

Welcome from the Mayor Councillor David Rowe

Welcome to the first ever charity Bargain Hunt held in support of the Mayor of Felixstowe's Charities - Breast Friends and the Landguard Trust.

Ten teams representing local good causes were each given £100 to spend in the shops of Felixstowe to buy two lots for the auction.

The result is a fantastic array of goodies which will appeal to people of all tastes and budgets and has highlighted the fabulous shops we have in town. We thank them all for helping our bargain hunters with generous discounts.

The lots will be auctioned at a Gala Wine and Cheese Evening in the stunning surroundings of Landguard Fort on Thursday, September 5th from 6.30pm.

Guests can try a selection of Adnams wines paired with delicious cheese from Felixstowe's own Alba Chiara Italian restaurant.

The auction is all about raising money. Whilst all profits will go to the Mayor's charities, there is also prize money for the teams who come first, second and third to help fund the great work they do in our community. So please, have a good look through the catalogue and dig deep - you could even start your Christmas shopping!

The auction will be presided over by Scott Russell, (former East Anglian Businessman of the Year and co-founder of Paddy and Scott's Coffee.) There will also be entertainment from Asha Louise and an opportunity to see something of the Fort.
