

FELIXSTOWE BOOK FESTIVAL

The Festival is grateful for the support of Felixstowe Town Council which helped to make our 2024 event such a success, bringing into Felixstowe people from far and wide. 59% of those surveyed had come from outside Felixstowe. The Festival continues to attract new attendees.

The Festival programme offered something for everyone, including Barrister Michael Mansfield who represented clients in the Hillsborough, Windrush and Grenfell cases, a panel of Nigerian authors and a celebration of the work of Daphne Du Maurier

Events were also held in the library, at Two Sisters Arts Centre and on a cruise down the river Orwell.

Feedback was very positive, summed up by this quote

“I’ve been attending the Festival from the very beginning and have always thoroughly enjoyed the events I’ve been to and the wonderful atmosphere. It has gone from strength to strength over this time, so a huge thank you to Meg and her team of supporters/volunteers. Without you there would never have been a Book Festival here- how much of a loss that would have been.”

The 2025 programme includes best selling authors Rev Richard Coles, Tracy Chevalier, Esther Freud and Jenny Boyd, wife of Mick Fleetwood of Fleetwood Mac, as well as celebrations of the work of P D James and Ronald Blythe. Subjects covered include environmental rights, neurodiversity, global economics as well as crime fiction.
